Introduction

Kentucky state government has made a commitment to you guaranteeing equal employment opportunity and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, veteran status, genetic information or disability in accordance with state and federal laws.

The law also provides other legal protections against retaliation in employment based on political affiliations or beliefs and employees who report wrongdoing to the appropriate authorities. With programs like the Employee Suggestion System and educational opportunities for career development, the state has promised to recognize and reward resourceful and productive employees.

When you accepted a state position, you also made a commitment to your employer. As a state employee, you are subject to certain laws and regulations as well as your agency's policies. You are also entitled to certain benefits. When you have questions about your responsibilities or benefits, consult the table of contents of this handbook.

For further assistance, contact your agency's human resource administrator. Not sure who that is? Consult the Agency HR Directory at <https://personnel.ky.gov/pages/agencies.aspx>.

Also, be sure to regularly check the Personnel Cabinet's web site at <http://personnel.ky.gov/> for news and announcements that directly affect your employment as well as watch the bulletin boards in your agency for information that will keep you up to date.

This handbook is not a contract nor do the statements contained in it have the force of law. Personnel laws and regulations may modify or supersede any or all statements in this handbook. For more information, employees should see their Human Resource Administrator and refer to the current edition of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, Chapter 18A, and Title 101 of the Kentucky Administrative Regulations.

This handbook is available in an accessible format upon request.

Adoption Benefit Program

In 1998, a mechanism whereby state employees could be reimbursed for a portion of the direct costs incurred in the adoption process was created.

The Kentucky State Personnel Cabinet administers the Adoption Benefit Program, which provides financial assistance to state employees in the Executive Branch.

Under 101 KAR 2:120 the Adoption Benefit Program provides up to $5,000.00 per family for direct costs related to the adoption of a special needs child, and up to $3,000.00 for any other child adoption. The money is provided by existing funds from the agency where the adoptive parent is employed, not to exceed $150,000.00 total in one year.

The Adoption Reimbursement Application shall be submitted to the Personnel Cabinet along with the following:

- Finalization of the adoption;
- Certification by the Secretary of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services that the adopted child is a special needs child, if reimbursement for special needs adoption is sought, and;
- A copy of an affidavit of expenses related to the adoption files and approved by the court at the time of finalization of the adoption.
- If both of the adoptive parents are Executive Branch state employees, the applications for financial assistance shall be submitted jointly.

Kentucky State Government employees who wish to adopt a child have access to equivalent benefits that are offered to birth parents. Adoptive parents are eligible for FMLA: 101 KAR 2:102.

As of August 2001, a state employee who wishes to be reimbursed for adoption expenses must also submit a completed Adoption Reimbursement Application and an Adoption Reimbursement Notification Letter to his/her appointing authority.

The Family Medical Leave Act entitles you to:

- Twelve (12) weeks of unpaid job protected leave.
- Having the state's share of your health and life insurance paid.

To obtain the Adoption Benefit Program Application, contact your Human Resource Administrator. Or contact Nila Meeks, Office for Employee Relations/Division of Employee Benefits-State Office Building, 3rd Floor, 501 High Street, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601, (502) 564-9818.

Appeals to the Personnel Board

Employees who have been dismissed, suspended, demoted, or otherwise penalized by formal action must be provided with written notice of such actions and their appeal rights. KRS 18A.095 explains the procedures for filing and hearing appeals. Additional information is contained in 101 KAR 1:365.

You may obtain an employee appeal form by contacting your agency's human resource administrator or from the Personnel Board.

Time limitations for filing an appeal with the Personnel Board often vary from thirty (30) days to one (1) year, depending upon the nature of the alleged penalization. An employee should refer to KRS 18A.095 and other resources to determine the time in which a specific appeal must be filed.

Classification Plan

The Personnel Cabinet is required to prepare, maintain and revise the classification plan for the Executive Branch of state government. The classification plan is a tool for sorting and comparing jobs so that jobs with similar levels of responsibilities and assigned duties will have the same title; similar requirements of education and training for applicants; and comparable pay grade. The plan currently has approximately 1240 class specifications. Each specification includes title, characteristic functions and responsibilities, examples of the duties generally performed by positions (jobs) in that class (not all job duties would be listed as examples), and minimum requirements listed as combinations of education, experience, licensure, certification or legal requirements a person must have to be considered for jobs in that class. All class/job specifications may be found at the Personnel Cabinet's website.

Your official title, as listed in your personnel file, is based on the responsibilities and duties assigned to your position (job) by your employer as compared to class specifications in the classification plan. Your employer informs the Personnel Cabinet of the responsibilities and duties of your job by completing and submitting a position description (PD) form. Classification and Compensation Branch's staff compares the contents of the PD to the various class specifications and makes a final determination of the most appropriate classification for your job. The class specification for your official title should describe the responsibilities and duties assigned by your employer more closely than other class specifications.

A "desk audit" is a personal interview with an employee and their supervisor or manager to get more detailed information about the responsibilities assigned to a job. The Personnel Cabinet may conduct a "desk audit" before making a final classification decision, or on some occasions, the appointing authority or Personnel Board may ask the Personnel Cabinet to conduct a "desk audit." Employees wishing for a desk audit must first go through their appointing authority who may request a "desk audit."

Appointing authorities may request the Personnel Cabinet to review the classification of their employees from time to time and make recommendations regarding such classifications. Should an employee be assigned permanent and material changes in his or her job class, a different classification may be appropriate. The appointing authority may request a RECLASSIFICATION. Employees reclassified to a higher pay grade may receive an increase in salary. Employees reclassified to a lower pay grade may keep the same salary they were earning prior to the reclassification. Employees reclassified to the same pay grade will keep the same salary.

A RECLASSIFICATION is different from a REALLOCATION in that an employee may be reallocated if (1) it is determined that the employee's job was not properly classified previously, or (2) if a new job specification is adopted by the Personnel Cabinet which better describes the job performed. Your new job classification after a reallocation may be to the same pay grade or to a higher or lower grade. Employees who are reallocated to a classification to which they do not agree may file a formal request (to the Secretary of the Personnel Cabinet) for a reconsideration of the action taken. Your agency will provide you with a copy of the reconsideration form if your position is reallocated.

You may have a working title in addition to your official job title. For example, you may be classified as an Office Support Assistant I but have a working title of "messenger." Working titles do not affect your official title and pay. Those titles may be used for purposes other than official payroll and personnel matters.

If you believe your classification does not accurately reflect your job, you may request your supervisor or agency personnel administrator to review your classification. The human resource administrator should work with agency management and the Personnel Cabinet to review your classification.

The Personnel Cabinet maintains the official copies of all class specifications.

Compensation (Pay) Plan

The Personnel Cabinet in consultation with the appointing authorities and the Office of the State Budget Director, prepares, maintains and revises the compensation (pay) plan. Three basic elements are involved in the compensation plan:

1. The relationship of the levels of responsibilities and duties of the various classifications;
2. What other employers pay for similar work; and
3. The financial resources (tax dollars) available to pay for the work performed.

Merit System employees are assigned to job classes according to their duties and responsibilities. Each job class in the classified service is assigned to one of the pay grades in the classified service salary schedule (Grades 5-21). Most job classes in the unclassified service are assigned to one of the pay grades in the unclassified service salary schedule (Grades 5-22). Pay grades are assigned based on similarity of the level of duties and responsibilities compared to other state job classes or by point factoring. Salary surveys of other employers determine the pay for similar levels of work. Each pay grade has an entry-level wage (the lowest salary that state government pays for work in jobs assigned to that pay grade) and a midpoint wage (the maximum salary at which an experienced applicant may be appointed).

The salary schedule may be adjusted when salary surveys indicate that job market salaries have changed AND state revenues allow budget appropriations for the purpose.

Your salary depends on a number of factors: (1) your job classification, (2) your seniority, and (3) your career path.

Your starting salary is normally at the minimum of the pay range assigned to your classification. In some cases an agency may request to start an employee above the range minimum based on an applicant's unique background or difficulty in recruiting for the class.

At the successful completion of the initial probation period (see glossary), an employee will receive a probationary increase of five percent (5%). This sets the employee's increment date for as long as an employee is continuously employed not including extensive leave without pay.

As you gain status (upon completion of probation) and seniority, you will be eligible for annual salary increases (raises) to the degree that the state's budget and regulations allow.

The compensation (pay) plan is closely related to the classification system, but it is distinctly different.

Deferred Compensation

Kentucky State Government employees (who receive a regular paycheck) may participate in one or both of the Supplemental Retirement Savings Plans available through the Kentucky Public Employees' Deferred Compensation Authority (Authority) program (IRC Section 457 and 401 (k)). In addition, a Roth 401(k) option and Deemed Traditional and Roth IRA features are available on an after-tax investment basis for purposes of tax diversification. Participation in this valuable state sponsored benefit is optional for employees. The Authority administers both Plans. The Authority, attached to the Personnel Cabinet for administrative purposes only, is part of Kentucky State Government.

Both the 457 and 401(k) defined contribution plans enable you to defer "pre-tax" income from your regular compensation and set it aside for retirement. Money set aside through the Authority is automatically payroll deducted twice each month. State employees have the option of selecting a set dollar amount to be deducted per pay period or specifying a percentage of salary to be deferred each pay period. There is a minimum $30 per month deferral requirement. Please note a minimum monthly contribution of $30 is required per plan or IRA. With the exception of the Roth401(k) and Deemed IRA contributions, you pay no state or federal income tax on either the money you defer, or the earnings on your investments, until you begin receiving benefits payments after retirement (including early retirement). At that time, you may be in a lower tax bracket and therefore, a smaller tax requirement may apply. Under current state tax law certain retirement incomes, including distributions from both Authority plans, are 100% excluded from Kentucky state taxes, up to an annual dollar maximum of $41,110 per person.

The Authority program is not meant for short-term savings purposes and monies deferred are generally not available except for financial hardship (401(k) Plan) and unforeseen emergency (457 Plan), termination of employment (voluntary and involuntary), retirement, or disability retirement from Kentucky State Government. In the event of your death prior to receipt of your total account balance your named beneficiary will be entitled to receive any remaining balance. Hardship is defined by IRS regulations and claims must be approved by the Authority in accordance with those definitions. Hardships do not include withdrawals for buying an automobile, consumer goods, or repayment of loans or credit card charges. A loan program is available to those participating in either the 457 or the 401(k) Plan, who want to borrow from their account. In addition, a state employee participating in the Kentucky Retirement Systems (KRS) prior to August 1, 2002 can "rollover" part or all of their 457 and/or 401(k) account to KRS to purchase up to 5 years of "non-qualified" service credit upon completing 15 years of service credit; however, it may not be used for benefit purposes until accruing 20 years of service, excluding any non-qualified service.

Investing for Retirement:

You choose which fund or funds to invest in. The Authority currently offers 36 no-load investment options (including 11 target date retirement funds) to participants in both plans. The Authority's Spectrum of Investment Options (Spectrum) is a tiered concept designed to assist in providing a simplified view of all your investment options. This tiered Spectrum consists of four unique tiers of funds targeting specific participant needs. Tier 1 was constructed for those participants who prefer an investment professional to make investment decisions for them. Tiers 2-4 are designed for participants who want to make their own investment decisions. The mutual funds in the Spectrum range in risk tolerance from conservative to aggressive. The majority of these funds are lower cost institutional share classes. To help ensure appropriate performance results are maintained, the Board of Trustees has adopted "Selection and Evaluation Criteria Standards." These have been specifically designed for the ongoing analysis and determination of the funds to be offered in the Spectrum. Please note mutual funds have no guarantee of return or principal. In addition, there is some uncertainty with every investment.

You have the flexibility to make exchanges of your fund balances between funds within the Spectrum on a daily basis and at no additional cost to participants. Visit the Authority's web site at <https://www.kentuckydcp.com> for fund restrictions. Deferral amounts, percentages and fund investment options may be changed from one pay period to the next available pay period.

There is an on-going annualized record keeping and administrative fee, which is deducted periodically from your account and reflected on each quarterly transaction-based statement. The Authority has an on-going process to review the costs to administer the system with the objective to reduce participant fees whenever feasible. This process has successfully reduced fees in 9 of the past 16 years. The total recurring annual savings to participants now exceeds $4.3 million.

Planning for Retirement:

Long range planning and systematic saving for eventual retirement is one of the most important undertakings for employees during their state government career. With today's trends of employees retiring at younger ages and living longer in retirement (you may live as long or longer in retirement as you worked!), employees can rarely afford to rely solely on traditional defined benefit pension plans and Social Security as their only sources of retirement income for their "golden years."

Through the Authority program provided to employees as an "optional" benefit sponsored by the Commonwealth, you may, depending upon your income and any mandatory withholdings, save up to 100% of your gross salary up to the annual maximum of $17,500 in 2013 and 2014 in the IRC Section 457 Plan and up to $17,500 in 2013 and 2014 in the IRC Section 401(k) Plan. Depending upon your age, or other factors, you may be eligible to defer even more. Maximum deferrals are indexed annually in $500 increments. Additional deferral information is available on our web site.

Staff of the Authority and its statewide field service team is always available during regular working hours to assist you in planning, preparing and saving for your eventual retirement. Authority Payout Counselors are happy to work with you as you select the payout most appropriate for your individual needs. A comprehensive web site (<https://www.kentuckydcp.com>) is available 24 hours per day, 7 days a week and provides account information as well as a method for making account changes and more.

For information on participating in the Authority program, please contact Authority or marketing staff at 502.573.7925 or toll free at 800.542.2667.

Drug-Free Workplace

In 1988, the United States Congress enacted the Anti-Drug Abuse Act (P.L. 100-690), which requires recipients of federal funds to certify that they have met requirements designed to promote a drug-free workplace. In compliance with this Act, and at the direction of the Governor, all State employees are notified that:

The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of any controlled substance is strictly prohibited in the workplace and any employee found to be in violation will be subject to disciplinary action by the Appointing Authority for misconduct which may include sanctions up to and including dismissal from state service, in accordance with the State law.

- The Personnel Cabinet will continue to improve drug-free awareness programs through Employee Assistance and in cooperation with State agencies to eradicate the dangers that drugs in the workplace create for our employees. State-supported health insurance provides coverage for employees referred to or seeking treatment for drug and alcohol related problems.
- Employees are notified that compliance with drug-free workplace requirement is a condition of continued employment with State Government. Each employee is obligated to report any conviction he or she receives as a result of a violation of any criminal drug statute violation occurring in the workplace within five (5) days of such conviction. Failure to report a conviction may result in disciplinary action. Such a report is to be made to the employee's Appointing Authority and is required by federal law and the agency is obligated to report such conviction to the federal grantor within ten (10) days after it receives notice.
- Employees found to be in violation of drug-free workplace requirements may face disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or may be required to satisfactorily participate in a drug abuse assistance or treatment program.

Employees who have questions concerning this directive are encouraged to contact their supervisor or the Kentucky Employee Assistance Program at (502) 564-5788. For more information please check our website at <https://personnel.ky.gov/Pages/Substance-Abuse.aspx>.

Employee Benefits

Your net salary (the amount of pay left after deductions) does not tell the whole story of your work compensation. Beyond your pay lies a hidden amount that adds more than 30% to the real value of your salary. These dollars come to you as fringe benefits of your state employment in the form of state-assumed costs for insurance protection, retirement and social security benefits, saving plans, educational opportunities, and various types of leave time. Sections in this handbook explain what your state benefits are, what conditions apply to them and how they mean extra dollars to you.

If you need additional information concerning state benefits, talk with your agency's human resource administrator. Below is the schedule of benefits available to different types of employees.

Employee Performance Evaluation System

The job performance of state employees is important to the Commonwealth. Supervisors are required to evaluate the performance of all eligible merit system employees each year. In order to assure all Kentucky citizens that the quality of services provided by their state government measures up, state law requires that evaluation shall be considered in determining eligibility for discretionary salary advancements, promotions and disciplinary actions. See KRS 18A.110 and 101 KAR 2:180.

Work performance evaluation benefits you in several ways. First, it improves communication between you and your supervisor. Supervisors must meet with eligible employees at the start of each evaluation period to discuss performance requirements. Performance requirements include a written performance plan consisting of job duties, performance expectations and assigned points in each performance category. At the start of the performance year the employee, first line supervisor and next line supervisor sign the plan. The completed performance plan provides you the information needed to understand what your job requires. It also provides the mechanism for reviewing your progress as an employee. If your performance is satisfactory, you are told what you are doing right and how you might do even better. If your performance is not up to standard, you receive the constructive counseling or training that will enable you to improve.

For details on who is eligible for evaluation, how performance evaluation affects you and how the process is administered, see the Employee Evaluation Handbook/Orientation, available to you through your supervisor or your agency's human resources administrator. Also, you may visit the Personnel Cabinet's web site to read KRS 18A.110 and 101 KAR 2:180 or review the Personnel Cabinet's web site to find out more about the Employee Performance Evaluation System <https://personnel.ky.gov/Pages/learning-PerfEval.aspx>.

Employee Records and Files

There are two principle sources of information pertaining to your employment in state government. Your official personnel file, which is maintained by the Personnel Cabinet, and your agency personnel file, maintained by your agency. Both of these files may be inspected and copied upon a written request made under KRS 18A.020. (Per KRS 61.874(3) a reasonable fee will apply for files previously duplicated within a twelve month period.) Please remember that state resources such as mail, e-mail, and fax should not be used to request records.

You may comment in writing on any item in your personnel files. Such comments shall be made a part of your files and shall be attached to the specific record or document to which they pertain.

Records contained in personnel files are public records open to public inspection pursuant to Kentucky's Open Records Law (KRS 61.870 to 61.884). If requested, generally these records will be disclosed subject to the redaction of personal information pursuant to KRS 61.878. In order to inspect an agency record, you must comply with appropriate request procedures established by the agency and authorized under KRS 61.876. A response to your request for records is due within three (3) days from the receipt of your request.

As a courtesy and in order to protect personal and private information from disclosure, the Personnel Cabinet makes reasonable efforts to notify an employee when it receives an Open Records request from a third party to inspect and copy records in the employee's file.

For more information on "Records of Personnel Cabinet Subject to Open Records Law/Employees' Access to Personnel Files" please refer to KRS 18A.020.

Ethics Code for the Executive Branch

Executive Branch employees are responsible for complying with the Executive Branch Code of Ethics under Kentucky Revised Statutes (KRS) Chapter 11A. The Executive Branch Code of Ethics contains provisions to ensure ethical conduct and prevent conflicts of interest in the Executive Branch of state government.

- To maintain public confidence in a democratic government, certain restrictions are placed upon your conduct.

In general, as a public servant, you are prohibited from the following:

- Using or attempting to use any means to influence a public agency in derogation of the state at large;
- Using your official position or office to obtain a financial gain for yourself or any members of your family;
- Using or attempting to use your official position to secure or create privileges, exemptions, advantages, or treatment of yourself or others in derogation of the public interest at large;
- Disclosing or using confidential information acquired in the course of your official duties to further your own economic interests;
- Receiving, directly or indirectly, any interest or profit from the use or loan of public funds;
- Acting as a representative or agency for the Commonwealth or any agency in the transaction of business or regulatory action with yourself, or with any business in which you or a member of your family has any interest greater than five percent (5%) of the total value thereof;
- Undertaking, executing, holding, bidding on, negotiating, or enjoying, in whole or in part, any contract, agreement, lease, or purchase made, entered into, awarded, or granted by the agency by which you are employed or which you supervise, subject to the provisions of KRS 45A.340;

Certain Executive Branch employees are required annually to publicly disclose financial information. If you are required to disclose this information, you will be sent notification of this requirement.

The Executive Branch Code of Ethics details procedures for reporting a complaint of an alleged violation of KRS 11A. An investigation is initiated by the Executive Branch Ethics Commission to determine if a violation of the law has occurred. Penalties for violations of the Executive Branch Code of Ethics include loss of state employment, withholding of salary, civil penalties of not more than $5000, or the criminal penalties for a Class D felony charge depending on the law violated.

For more details of the ethics laws that govern the Executive Branch employees, see KRS Chapter 11A. If you have questions, you may consult your supervisor or request an advisory opinion from the Executive Branch Ethics Commission.

Affirmative Action Plan for State Government

The Executive Branch Affirmative Action Plan reflects this administration's sincere commitment to both good government and equitable treatment of all employees of the Commonwealth, and applicants seeking employment with Kentucky State Government.

Employees and citizens of this Commonwealth are our most valuable resources. Equal Employment Opportunity, as well as opportunities for professional growth, shall be available to all applicants and employees regardless of race, color, sex, disability, age, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, political affiliation, or veteran status. This policy applies to all personnel actions, including but not limited to: recruiting, hiring, classification and compensation, benefits, promotions, transfers, layoffs, reinstatement, and educational programs. It is the policy of the Commonwealth of Kentucky that no applicant for employment or employee will be subject to harassment or discrimination because of race, color, sex, disability, age, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, political affiliation, or veteran status.

The Executive Branch Affirmative Action Plan is established in statute by KRS 18A.138 and by Executive Order 2013-841. The Personnel Cabinet's Office of Diversity & Equality has overall responsibility for the implementation of this plan, including the development of specific overall goals and timetables, and is required to report progress under the Affirmative Action Plan to the Secretary of the Kentucky Personnel Cabinet. The Secretary of the Personnel Cabinet is required to report directly to the Office of the Governor regarding plan progress on a semi-annual basis. The full cooperation and affirmation of the Affirmative Action Plan, and the state EEO Program, is expected by all managers, supervisors, executive leaderships, and state employees.

Sexual Harassment Policy:

State law prohibits unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual acts or favors, with or without accompanying promises, threats, or reciprocal favors or actions; or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature that has the purpose of or creates a hostile or offensive working environment. Examples of prohibited conduct include, but are not limited to, lewd or sexually suggestive comments, off-color language or jokes of a sexual nature; slurs and other verbal, graphic or physical conduct relating to an individual's sex; or any display of sexually explicit pictures, greeting cards, articles, books, magazines, photos or cartoons.

Complaints of sexual harassment will be promptly and carefully investigated, and all employees may be assured that they will be free from any and all reprisal or retaliation from filing such complaints. Any employee who has a complaint of sexual harassment at work by anyone, including supervisors, co-workers, visitors, clients, or customers, should immediately bring the problem to the attention of agency officials or the Personnel Cabinet. Employees may bring the complaint to the attention of their supervisor, or if the complaint involves supervisory personnel in the employee's line of command, to another supervisor, the personnel manager or the State EEO Coordinator at (502) 564-8000.

Policy Statement on Harassment Prevention:

The Commonwealth of Kentucky does not tolerate harassment of any kind. All employees must avoid offensive or inappropriate behavior at work and are responsible for assuring that the workplace is free from harassment at all times. Types of prohibited conduct include, but are not necessarily limited to, harassment because of one's race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, veteran status, disability, or political affiliation.

Examples of prohibited conduct include, but are not limited to, threatening, offensive or unwelcome conduct including: abusive verbal language directed toward an individual because of sex, race, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability; lewd or obscene comments about an individual's body, attire, or gender, including abusive comments or terminology addressed to a specific employee; vulgar or indecent gestures, language, or jokes; bringing or displaying a lewd or obscene object, book, magazine, photograph, cartoon, calendar, picture, or similar item into the workplace; or use of computers to transmit, solicit, display, or download lewd or obscene messages or materials.

Complaints of harassments will be promptly and carefully investigated. All employees are assured that they will be free from any and all reprisal or retaliation from filing such complaints. Further, all employees are assured that they will be free from any and all reprisal and retaliation for participating in an investigation of harassment.

Any employee who has a complaint of harassment at work by anyone, including supervisors, co-workers, visitors, clients, or customers, has a duty to immediately bring the problem to the attention of his or her supervisor. If the employee's supervisor is the subject of the problem, the employee has a duty to immediately notify his or her second-line supervisor of the problem. Employees may also bring the complaint to the attention of the agency EEO Coordinator. Any supervisor receiving a complaint of harassment shall report the complaint to the agency EEO Coordinator or the State EEO Coordinator. Failure to do so shall be grounds for disciplinary action. For guidance on the complaint filing process, employees may contact the State EEO Coordinator at (502) 564-8000.

The investigation will include, but shall not be limited to, interviews with all relevant persons including the complainant, the accused, and other potential witnesses. Employees are assured that the privacy of the complainant and the person accused of harassment shall be protected to the fullest extent permitted by the circumstances.

The investigating agency will review its findings with the complainant at the conclusion of the investigation. If the investigation reveals that the complaint appears to be valid, immediate and appropriate corrective action, up to and including discharge will be taken to stop harassment and prevent its recurrence.

Policy Statement on Diversity:

The Commonwealth of Kentucky recognizes that continued success in meeting the needs of our clients and customers, both internal and external, requires the full and active participation of talented and committed individuals regardless of their respective race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, veteran status, disability, sexual orientation and gender identity. By fostering an atmosphere of acceptance and support, we can begin to value and appreciate the strengths afforded by the differences, styles, ideas and organizational contributions of each and every person.

The ultimate goal of workplace diversity will be achieved when Kentucky State Government has further enhanced its ability to recruit, retain, and tap the full potential of employees at all levels and is diverse enough to:

1. Allow all Cabinets to compete for qualified employees from an increasingly diverse worker pool;
2. Be more reflective of the population and socioeconomic circumstances of Kentucky's citizens; and
3. Eliminate biases that may be in the state workforce.

Diversity complements the other organizational values of teamwork, leadership, empowerment and service quality and encompasses the way we work, the work environment, and respect for people and ideas. Diversity includes everyone and everything. While its major focus may often revolve around issues of previous discrimination based on race and gender, it is not something that is defined, or limited solely by those two factors. Diversity also extends to age, personal and work history, education, function, personality, geographic origin, tenure with the organization, merit and non-merit status, and management or non-management position. It also encompasses varying management styles and ways of thinking, leadership abilities, skill levels, experiences, viewpoints, expression of thoughts and differing ways of delivering services provided there is consistency in the values we share.

Diversity is inclusion. It stresses equal opportunity and recognizes and respects the multitude of differences that employees bring to the workplace as well as acknowledging the changing “face” of the community we serve. The full cooperation and affirmation of diversity by all state employees, including management, is expected.

Policy Statement on the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) & the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments (ADAA):

Kentucky state government is committed to the full implementation of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended by the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (ADA). It is the policy of the Commonwealth to maximize the full inclusion and integration of people with disabilities in all aspects of employment and all programs, services and activities.

All employees must comply with the following policies regarding the ADA:

- Discrimination Prohibited: Employees with disabilities who are otherwise qualified may not be discriminated against in any areas of employment including, but not limited to, job application and compensation procedures, fringe benefits available by virtue of employment and activities sponsored by the state.
- Limiting, Segregating, and Classifying: Employees with disabilities shall not be limited, segregated, or classified in a way that adversely affects their employment opportunities or status.
- Contractual or Other Arrangements: The Commonwealth will not participate in contractual or other arrangements or relationships that would subject qualified employees with disabilities to the discrimination prohibited by the ADA.
- Reasonable Accommodations: The Commonwealth will make reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified employee with a disability, unless it can be shown that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the agency. After a qualified employee requests reasonable accommodation, all agencies will make every reasonable effort to find out what is needed and provide the appropriate accommodations. This is to be an interactive process with the agency consulting with the employee with a disability.
- Retaliation and Coercion: The Commonwealth will not coerce, intimidate, threaten, harass, or interfere with any individual exercising or enjoying his or her rights under the ADA or because that individual aided or encouraged any other individual in the exercise of rights granted or protected by the ADA. Employees who believe they have been adversely impacted in violation of this policy may file a complaint as set forth in Employee Grievances and Complaints section of the Employee Handbook. Please direct any questions or concerns to your agency ADA Coordinator.

General Information about State Government

Kentucky state government is made up of three branches: the Legislative Branch, the Judicial Branch, and the Executive Branch. As an employee of the state, your position is assigned to an agency within the Executive Branch. Your position is also identified as being under the "merit system"—also called the "classified" service—or outside the merit system in the "unclassified" service.

The Legislative Branch is made up of the elected members of the Kentucky General Assembly and staff. Legislators are chosen by voters in their districts to serve in either the House of Representatives or the Senate. With the aid of their professional staffs employed in the Legislative Research Commission (LRC), they write and enact the laws of Kentucky. LRC employees are not covered by the merit system in KRS Chapter 18A.

The Judicial Branch includes the state's court system. It interprets and applies the laws under the Kentucky and United States Constitutions. As with the Legislative Branch, Judicial Branch employees are not covered by the KRS 18A Merit System.

The Executive Branch, headed by the governor, carries out the laws through "agencies" – cabinets, departments, boards, commissions, and offices. Most Executive Branch employees are covered by one of the three personnel systems: KRS 18A, KRS 16 and the Career and Technical System.

Within the Executive Branch, agencies are grouped into "Cabinets." As head of the Executive Branch, the governor may organize agencies so they will function more efficiently. Agencies are sometimes re-organized when the governor finds they may work better under a different structure.

The Executive Branch now has eleven cabinets. They are: Transportation, Economic Development, Finance & Administration, Tourism, Arts & Heritage, Education & Workforce Development, Health & Family Services, Justice & Public Safety, Personnel, Labor, Energy & Environment, and Public Protection.

Grievance Process

Occasionally employees are faced with situations that cannot be resolved through informal complaint processes. In such cases the employee may wish to file a formal grievance with his or her agency. The following administrative regulation (101 KAR 1:375) provides for those cases when an appeal to the Personnel Board might be unnecessary or premature. The employee grievance procedure allows many serious matters to be resolved in-house through a formal structure designed to save employees and their agencies both time and unnecessary effort.

A grievance is a complaint filed by an employee which concerns some aspect of his or her conditions of employment over which the employee's cabinet or agency has control and which has occurred or of which the employee has become aware, through the exercise of due diligence, within thirty (30) days prior to filing.

Employees in the classified service who believe that they have been subjected to unfair or unjust treatment concerning their conditions of employment may file a grievance.

Any grievance concerning an action which is appealable directly to the Personnel Board under KRS 18A.095 may also be filed with the cabinet or agency. The filing of a grievance with the cabinet or agency does not prohibit the employee from also filing an appeal with the Personnel Board, or extend the statutory appeal period.

An employee utilizing this procedure is entitled to file a grievance without interference, coercion, discrimination, or reprisal.

An appointing authority must inform its employees of the provisions of 101 KAR 1:375, the administrative regulation governing the grievance process, or any modifications in the levels of review that have been approved by the Personnel Board for the employee's cabinet or agency under that administrative regulation.

The Secretary of the Personnel Cabinet provides to employees, through their appointing authorities, a Grievance Form to be used for filing a grievance. Grievance forms may also be inspected, copied or obtained at the Personnel Board, 28 Fountain Place, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601, 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Procedures: A grievance is to be filed with an employee's immediate supervisor within thirty (30) days following occurrence or the employee becoming aware, through the exercise of due diligence, of the action that is the subject of the grievance. If the action or conduct of the first line supervisor is the basis of an employee's grievance, the grievance may be filed with the second line supervisor.

An employee must state in writing the basis of the grievance or complaint together with the corrective action desired. If an employee wishes to submit additional information or documentation, it should be attached to the Grievance Form.

If a grievance is filed that alleges discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, or veteran's status, the recipient of this grievance must immediately notify the cabinet or agency EEO Coordinator to apply the affirmative action plan.

Interviews to evaluate or investigate the grievance outside of normal work hours with the grievant or other employees entitle them to compensatory time.

Interviews to evaluate or investigate the grievance held with the grievant or other employees do not require the use of leave time.

Grievant may have a representative present at each step of the grievance procedure.

Grievance Levels: The person with whom the grievance is filed shall, upon investigation, issue findings and a decision in writing to the employee within ten (10) workdays after receipt of the grievance. If the responding supervisor is unable to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the employee, the employee may request review of the grievance within five (5) workdays of receipt of the decision to the next appropriate level.

The next line supervisors shall each have five (5) work days to respond to the grievance. The employee shall have five (5) work days after each intermediate supervisory review to decide to appeal the grievance to the next level.

If the line supervisors are unable to resolve the grievance to the satisfaction of the employee, the employee may request review of the grievance within five (5) workdays of receipt of the decision of the final line supervisor by the appointing authority who, upon investigation, shall issue findings and a final determination in writing to the employee within twenty (20) workdays.

Unless the time limits have been extended by agreement of the parties, failure of supervisory or management personnel to respond within prescribed time limits shall automatically advance the grievance to the next review level.

Any intermediate grievance level may be waived by written agreement of the parties.

HIV and AIDS In The Workplace

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT HIV AND AIDS:

WHAT IS AIDS?

AIDS is Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome- a serious illness that makes the body unable to fight infection. A person with AIDS is susceptible to certain infections and cancers. When a person with AIDS cannot fight off infections, this person becomes ill. These infections can eventually kill a person with AIDS.

WHAT CAUSES AIDS?

The Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) causes AIDS. Early diagnosis of HIV infection is important! If you have been told you have HIV, you should get prompt medical treatment. In many cases, early treatment can enhance a person's ability to remain healthy as long as possible. Your doctor will help you determine the best treatment for you. Free or reduced cost anonymous and confidential testing with counseling is available at most local health departments in Kentucky. After being infected with HIV, it takes between two weeks to six months before the test can detect the antibodies to the virus.

HOW IS HIV SPREAD?

- Sexual contact (oral, anal, or vaginal intercourse) with an infected person when blood, pre-ejaculation fluid, semen or cervical/vaginal secretions are exchanged.
- Sharing syringes, needles, cotton, cookers and other drug injecting equipment (IDU) with someone who is infected.
- Receiving contaminated blood or blood products (very unlikely now because blood used for transfusions has been tested for HIV antibodies since March, 1985)
- An infected mother passing HIV to her unborn child before or during childbirth, and through breast feeding.
- Receipt of transplant, tissue/organs, or artificial insemination from an infected donor.
- Needle stick or other sharps injury in a health care setting involving an infected person. Infections can sometimes be prevented by taking post-exposure prophylaxis anti-retroviral drugs. Strict adherence to universal precautions is the best way to prevent exposures.

YOU CANNOT GET HIV THROUGH CASUAL CONTACT SUCH AS:

- Sharing food, utensils, or plates
- Touching someone who is infected with HIV
- Hugging or shaking hands
- Donating blood or plasma (this has NEVER been a risk for contracting HIV)
- Using public rest rooms
- Being bitten by mosquitoes or other insects
- Using tanning beds (always clean before and after each use)

HOW CAN I PREVENT HIV/AIDS?

- Do not share needles or other drug paraphernalia.
- Do not have sexual intercourse except with a monogamous partner whom you know is not infected and who is not sharing needles. If you choose to have sex with anyone else, use latex condoms (rubbers), female condoms or dental dams and water based lubricant every time you have sex.
- Educate yourself and others about HIV infection and AIDS.

WOMEN AND HIV/AIDS:

For females with HIV/AIDS in Kentucky, heterosexual exposure and injection drug use are the most common modes of transmission of HIV. HIV can be spread through body fluids (i.e., blood, semen, vaginal secretions, and breast milk).

All pregnant women should have blood tests to check for HIV infection.

- Mothers can pass HIV infection to their babies during pregnancy, labor and delivery, and by the child ingesting infected breast milk.
- Without treatment, about 25% (1 out of 4) of the babies born to HIV infected women will get HIV.
- Medical treatment for the HIV infected woman during pregnancy, labor, and delivery can reduce the chance of the baby getting HIV from its mother to less than 2% (less than 2 out of 100).
- An HIV infected mother should not breastfeed her newborn baby.

IS TREATMENT AVAILABLE IF I ALREADY HAVE HIV/AIDS?

After being infected with HIV, it takes between two weeks to six months before the test can detect the HIV virus. Early diagnosis of HIV infection is important! Free anonymous and confidential testing and counseling is available at every Health Department in Kentucky. Testing requires drawing a small tube of blood from a vein in your arm. If you have HIV, you should get prompt medical treatment. In many cases, early treatment can enhance a person's ability to remain healthy as long as possible. Your doctor will help you determine the best treatment.

GETTING TESTED FOR HIV:

If you have never been tested for HIV, you should be tested at least once. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommend being tested at least once a year if you do things that can transmit HIV. These include:

- Injecting drugs or steroids with used injection equipment
- Having sex with someone who has HIV or any sexually transmitted disease (STD)
- Having more than one sex partner since your last HIV test
- Having a sex partner who has had other sex partners since your last HIV test
- Having sex for money or drugs (prostitution- male or female)
- Having unprotected sex or sex with someone who has had unprotected sex
- Having sex with injecting drug user(s)
- Having had a blood transfusion between 1978 and 1985
- Pregnant women or women desiring to become pregnant

Remember: you can't tell whether or not someone has HIV just by looking at them!

WHAT IS UNSAFE SEX?

- Vaginal, anal, or oral sex without using a condom or dental dam
- Sharing sex toys
- Contact with HIV infected blood, semen, or vaginal fluid

WHAT IS "SAFER" SEX?

- Abstinence (not having sex of any kind)
- Sex only with a person who does not have HIV, does not practice unsafe sex, or inject drugs
- Using either a male or female condom or dental dam (for oral sex)

How to use a latex condom:

1. Use a new latex condom every time you have sex.
2. The condom should be rolled onto the erect (hard) penis, pinching ½ inch at the tip of the condom to hold the ejaculation (semen) fluid. Air bubbles should be smoothed out.
3. Use plenty of WATER-BASED lubricants such as K-Y Jelly, including a drop or two inside the condom, before and during intercourse. DO NOT USE oil-based lubricants such as petroleum jelly, mineral oil, vegetable oil, Crisco, or cold cream.
4. After ejaculating, withdraw the penis holding the condom at the base to it will not slip off.
5. Throw away the used condom into a garbage can and wash hands.

How the Pay System Works

State government has a semi-monthly pay schedule. As an employee of the state, you will receive your pay on the 15th and the 30th of each month, when those dates fall on a regular workday. Whenever a payday falls on a weekend or holiday, payments are issued on the last workday preceding the 15th and the 30th.

If you are a new employee, you will not receive a payment the first payday following your first day of work. State government must pay its employees one pay period in arrears, so you will get your payment for hours worked during the previous pay period, not the current one. In other words, your end-of-the-month pay is for the period covering the first 15 days of the month.

A beginning employee must work a month before receiving pay for the first pay period. After that, new employees receive their pay when all other employees do. If you leave state employment, you will receive your last payment on the next regular pay date after you leave.

Your salary statement* provides you with information about your gross and net pay, leave balances, and deductions. Since April 2011 and the implementation of the Kentucky Human Resources Information System (KHRIS) copies of all salary statements are maintained in KHRIS Employee Self-Service (ESS) and can be accessed at any time. If you dispute any of the information of your salary statement, you should contact your HR office immediately.

Most state employees have their pay direct deposited automatically into their checking or savings account. This convenience saves time, postage, gasoline—and the anxiety of waiting in line. Ask your HR office about this time saving option.

*Effective August 15, 2013, all employees must access their salary statements electronically through KHRIS Employee Self-Service \(ESS\).

Direct Deposit is mandatory for all executive branch state employees hired on or after January 1, 2013.

County fees, day laborers, personal service contractors and state active duty employees are exempt from these policies.

Failure to comply with these policies could result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

- Business cards, letterhead, brochures, newsletters, flyers, and other information documents used for intra-government communications that cannot be sent electronically should be printed with a single color and on standard-size, recycled paper stock.

-Flexible Benefits Program-

KEHP currently offers a Healthcare Flexible Spending Account and a Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account. The program is provided through a Section 125 Cafeteria plan and allows you (if eligible) to pay for eligible Healthcare and Dependent Care expenses with pre-tax dollars.

An FSA is pre-tax money you set aside, through payroll deductions, to use for certain eligible expenses. You decide how much to contribute to your FSA, up to limits established by federal or state law. You may enroll in one or both Flexible Spending Accounts offered by KEHP. Healthcare FSA dollars can be used to pay toward out-of-pocket prescription costs; eligible medical expenses such as doctor's office visits, x-rays, and lab tests; dental services and some services not covered by your health insurance plan. You can use Dependent Care FSA dollars to pay toward childcare services such as daycare or adult care. Refer to KEHP's website at kehp.ky.gov for more specific information.

You have 35 days from your date of hire to enroll in either FSA programs. The Effective Date is the first day of the second month from the date of hire (i.e. if your hire date is February 25, your effective date will be April 1).

While on leave, you are responsible for making timely payments of the required contributions for Basic, Optional and Dependents Group Life Insurance.

-Health-

For complete information regarding the Kentucky Employees' Health Plan (KEHP), please refer to KEHP's website at kehp.ky.gov.

You are eligible to participate in KEHP if you are a regularly employed employee or COBRA participant. Regularly employed employees are employees who contribute to one of the state-sponsored retirement systems, or who are otherwise defined in KRS 18A.225.

As a new employee, you have 35 days from your date of hire to:

- Elect to enroll in a health insurance plan option (for plan year 2014 the options are: LivingWell CDHP, LivingWell PPO, Standard PPO or Standard CDHP); or
- Elect to waive your health insurance and enroll in one of the two Health Reimbursement Accounts (HRAs) and receive $175 per month for a maximum total of $2100 per year. An HRA is a federally qualified expense account that consists of funds set aside by employers to reimburse employees for qualified medical expenses such as doctor's office visits, x-rays, prescriptions, eligible dental expenses or other eligible expenses not covered by health insurance. Refer to the KEHP website at kehp.ky.gov for specific information on the Waiver HRA and the Waiver Dental Vision Only HRA.

If you fail to make your elections within 35 days from your date of hire, you will be defaulted into the Standard CDHP at the single coverage level. You must then wait until the next annual Open Enrollment period to make your elections or until you have experienced a valid qualifying event.

If you elect health insurance coverage, your effective date will be the first day of the second month following your date of hire. For example: if you begin work on January 1, your health insurance is effective on March 1. If you begin work on January 16, health insurance is effective on March 1.

-Premium Conversion (Pre-Tax Benefit)-

The Premium Conversion (Pre-Tax Benefit) program gives an employee the opportunity to pay for the employee's portion of the health insurance premium with pre-tax dollars. This may save the employee money by reducing the employee's taxable income. An employee is automatically enrolled in the pre-tax benefit unless he/she signs a post-tax form either during Open Enrollment or within 35 days of his/her date of hire. The employee's premiums will remain pre-taxed until the next Open Enrollment period. If the employee opts out of this program and wishes to once again participate, he/she must re-enroll by signing an enrollment form during Open Enrollment. An agency HR Administrator can supply the employee with a post-tax form or a re-enrollment form should it become necessary.

-Workers' Compensation -

All state employees are covered under the Kentucky Worker's Compensation law pursuant to KRS Chapter 342. If your claim is approved, your necessary medical expenses will be paid and where applicable, part of your salary will be paid.

If you are unable to work for an extended time because of a work related injury or illness covered by Workers' Compensation Insurance, you will be paid for your time off work. Workers' Compensation income benefits are 66 2/3% of your average weekly salary, up to the state maximum as set forth by the Department of Workers' Claims. You may, however, use your accumulated leave to keep your regular salary. If you choose to use your paid accumulated leave, your workers' compensation income benefits must be remitted back to the state for whatever time you receive paid leave. Your accumulated leave will be reinstated to the extent that Worker's Compensation income benefits are remitted. You may not receive and keep paid accumulated leave and Worker's Compensation income benefits for the same period of time. See 101 KAR 2:140 Section 4, Workers' Compensation Fund and Program.

If you are injured on the job, you must report the injury as soon as possible to your supervisor. Supervisors are responsible for completing the Employer's First Report of Injury or Illness within 3 working days. This may be completed on-line at <https://personnel.ky.gov/pages/workerscomp.aspx>.

Internal Mobility Program

Agencies may advertise promotional vacancies that are limited to Internal Mobility candidates. Internal Mobility candidates are current state employees who have merit status under KRS 18A, and are seeking promotion, transfer, or demotion into another merit position. Internal Mobility candidates are also eligible to apply to competitive job advertisements, which are open to all applicants. FFTL, interim, non-merit, and employees on initial probation do not have merit status and therefore are not eligible to be considered for promotional job advertisements.

If you are a merit employee and want to be considered as an Internal Mobility candidate on a promotional register, you must:

- Find a posted vacancy announcement;
- Submit an application to that vacancy through Career Opportunities System (COS); and
- Meet the minimum requirements for the position for which you are applying.

As promotional registers are requested by hiring agencies and vacancies are posted, the names of all employees with Internal Mobility status who have applied will be certified to the requesting agencies. Unlike the pre-COS, paper-driven process which was not vacancy specific, applicants who apply to positions posted on the Career Opportunities System vacancy list are not blocked from registers if they are contacted by the hiring agency and decline a job interview or they are selected for appointment by the hiring agency and decline the job offer. However, applicants are highly encouraged to notify the hiring agency in advance if they cannot attend a scheduled interview. Failure to show for a scheduled interview reflects negatively upon you as a candidate and could diminish your chances for serious employment consideration when future vacancies become available within that agency; and as a result of being a 'no show' these hiring agencies may request that you be blocked from certification on registers for their specific job title/vacancy for a set amount of time. It is especially recommended you notify the hiring agency as far in advance as possible should you change your decision on an accepted offer of employment.

Placement on a register is not an indication of approval for reclassification of a position. NOTE: Part-time employees with merit status are only identified as Internal Mobility candidates on registers for part-time vacancies. They are identified as competitive candidates on registers for full-time vacancies.

If you have any questions, contact the Personnel Cabinet, Division of Career Opportunities at (502) 564-8030 or you may email the COS Help Desk at: CosHelp@ky.gov.

Kentucky Employee Assistance Program (KEAP)

The Kentucky Employee Assistance Program \(KEAP\) is dedicated to helping employees find solutions to the personal problems that may hinder their effectiveness at work.

Problems concerning marital, family, or emotional distress, alcoholism and drug abuse, financial or even medical issues can seriously diminish an individual's job performance. As a progressive employer the Commonwealth of Kentucky recognizes that there are positive, workable solutions to many of these problems that trouble employees.

State employees and their dependents are eligible for KEAP services. There is no cost for its information or referral services. All of your contact with KEAP is confidential as required by state and federal law. Employee involvement with KEAP is permitted on state time with the supervisor's prior approval. Supervisors may refer employees to KEAP when job performance deteriorates, however participation is voluntary.

If you or your dependents could benefit from this assessment and referral service, call the KEAP office for more information. Kentucky Employee Mediation Program (KEMP)

The Kentucky Employee Mediation Program (KEMP), in the Personnel Cabinet's Office for Employee Relations, helps employees resolve disputes with their co-workers and their supervisors. The goal of the program is to help employees and supervisors deal with problems in the workplace before they escalate.

KEMP is a voluntary service, and is available to all Executive Branch employees, free of charge. Employees are not required to use leave time to attend the mediation when the employee has obtained prior approval of his/her supervisor. Mediations can usually be scheduled in a week or two and take approximately three hours to complete. Either the employee or the supervisor may request mediation services. Mediation does not replace other avenues of dispute resolution which are available to state employees, such as grievances and Personnel Board appeals.

Mediation is a form of dispute resolution where a neutral mediator facilitates a meeting between parties in conflict, and helps them reach an agreement that is acceptable to both of them. The mediator does not take sides, make decisions, nor advocate certain solutions.

Cases to be mediated by KEMP can include disputes between co-workers or between employee and supervisor. Some of the issues mediated are communication problems, personality conflicts, turf issues, ADA issues, FMLA issues, harassment, discrimination, and disciplinary actions.

For more information or to schedule mediation, call 502/564-5974 or email linda.patrick@ky.gov Visit the website at <https://personnel.ky.gov/Pages/Mediation-Information.aspx>.

Kentucky Employee Suggestion System (KESS)

Under KRS 18A.110 and 101 KAR 2:120, all employees with status in the classified service (merit employees) or and employee governed by KRS Chapter 16 may be recognized and rewarded for submitting suggestions that result in the improvement of state service or in the realization of financial saving by the state. Employees in the unclassified service (non-merit) are not eligible.

Cash awards are given when a suggestion has been implemented and approved by the Council and results in cost reductions, cost avoidance, or for ideas that would improve the operations of a process or program, improve public relations, safety or effectiveness of operations. Awards range from $100 minimum to ten percent (10%) of the first year's documented or estimated savings, up to a maximum of $2,500.00. A $100.00 award may be given for ideas that have intangible savings.

Information about the Kentucky Employee Suggestion System is available at <https://personnel.ky.gov/pages/rewards.aspx>. It's accessible through KHRIS Employee Self-Service (ESS) using a link on that same site or by going directly here <https://khris.ky.gov/irj/portal> and clicking on the KESS tab.

Kentucky Employees Charitable Campaign (KECC)

Each year the Personnel Cabinet administers the Kentucky Employees Charitable Campaign to all employees who receive their pay through the Commonwealth of Kentucky. (This is not limited to 18A employees.)

The purpose of this campaign is to raise funds through a single source (KECC) for a number of state approved charities including: Christian Appalachian Project, Easter Seals Kentucky, United Way of Kentucky, Community Health Charities, Prevent Child Abuse Kentucky, WHAS Crusade for Children and March of Dimes. This eliminates having multiple charities soliciting for donations year round and allows employees who wish to participate, the ability to do so through payroll deduction or through a one-time cash donation.

For more information regarding the Kentucky Employees Charitable Campaign, visit their web site at <http://kecc.org> or contact your HR Administration for information about making a donation.

Leave

-Annual (Vacation) Leave-

All full-time employees receive annual leave as a state work benefit. Part-time and Interim employees do not earn annual leave. Your length of service will determine the amount of annual leave you earn in a calendar year. A full-time employee shall have worked, or been on paid leave, other than educational leave with pay, for 100 or more regular hours per month to accrue annual leave.

Months of Service	Leave Accrued Annually
0-59 months	12 days per year; 1 day per month
60-119 months	15 days per year; 1 1/4 days per month
120-179 months	18 days per year; 1 1/2 days per month
180-239 months	21 days per year; 1 3/4 days per month
240 months and over	24 days per year; 2 days per month

You may carry your annual leave forward from one calendar year to the next at the following rates:

Months of Service	Maximum to Carry Forward	37.5 hr wk	40 hr wk
0-59 months	30 working days	225 hrs.	240 hrs.
60-119 months	37 working days	277.50 hrs.	296 hrs.
120-179 months	45 working days	337.50 hrs.	360 hrs.
180-239 months	52 working days	390 hrs.	416 hrs.
240 months and over	60 working days	450 hrs.	480 hrs.

Leave in excess of the above maximum amounts shall be converted to sick leave at the end of the calendar year or upon retirement.

Rules on Use and Payment:

The first rule to remember about annual leave is that you must always get advance approval from your supervisor before taking annual leave. To do this, you should complete your agency's appropriate leave form and give it to your supervisor early enough to obtain the supervisor's written consent before you take time off. If you do not receive prior approval for annual leave, your agency may refuse to pay you for the time you are absent and consider your absence as "unauthorized absence." Agencies may also take disciplinary action against employees who are absent without leave. An employee who is absent without authorization for 10 working days is considered to have resigned from employment.

If you resign from state employment, you will be paid for all accumulated annual leave, up to the legal maximum you are permitted to carry over from year to year, provided you give your agency at least 14 calendar days written notice of your final work day.; If you do not give at least 14 days notice, your agency can refuse to pay you for any annual leave time you have accumulated.

If you are laid off you will be paid for all unused accumulated annual leave time up to the legal maximum you are permitted to carry over from year to year. An exception may be made if your position is part of an approved plan for privatization of services and the successor employer agrees to credit you with your annual leave time.

If you are dismissed for cause or fail to give two weeks notice of resignation without proper notice, you may have to forfeit all of your unused annual leave time. Your agency will decide whether you are to receive payment for your accrued annual leave.

Annual Leave Sharing Program:

1. An employee who has accrued an annual leave balance of more than seventy-five (75) hours may request that the appointing authority of the agency for which the employee works make available for transfer a specified amount of his or her annual leave balance to another named employee authorized to receive leave under the regulation. The employee may not request a transfer of an amount of leave that would result in reducing his or her annual leave balance to less than seventy-five (75) hours.
2. An appointing authority, with the approval of the secretary of personnel, may permit an employee of the agency to receive leave under this section if:
 - The employee suffers from a catastrophic loss to his or her personal property, due to either a natural disaster or fire, that either has caused or will likely cause the employee to go on leave for at least ten (10) consecutive working days;
 - The employee has exhausted his or her accumulated annual leave and compensatory leave balances; and
 - The employee has complied with administrative regulations governing the use of annual leave.
3. The appointing authority, with the approval of the Secretary of personnel, shall determine the amount of leave, if any, that an employee within his or her agency may receive. Transfers of leave shall not exceed the amount requested by the recipient.
4. Leave may be transferred from an employee of one (1) agency to an employee within the same agency, or another state agency. The Personnel Cabinet shall maintain records of leave transferred between employees and the utilization of transferred leave.
5. While an employee is on leave transferred under this section, he or she shall be deemed a state employee and shall receive the same treatment with respect to salary, wages, and employee benefits.
6. All salary and wage payments made to an employee while on leave transferred under this section shall be made by the agency employing the person receiving the leave.
7. Any leave transferred under this section that remains unused shall be returned to the employees who transferred the leave when the appointing authority finds that the leave is no longer needed and will not be needed at a future time in connection with the catastrophic loss for which the leave was transferred to an employee in his or her agency.
8. No employee shall directly or indirectly intimidate, threaten, or coerce, or attempt to intimidate, threaten, or coerce any other employee for the purpose of interfering with the employee's right to voluntarily contribute leave when authorized under this section. For the purpose of this subsection, "intimidate, threaten, or coerce" shall include, without being limited to, the promise to confer or the conferring of any benefit or effecting or threatening to effect any reprisal.

Leave

-Blood Donation -

- Blood donation leave is granted for the purpose of whole blood donation and recuperation.
- The donation must occur during an employee's scheduled work hours in order to qualify for leave, which does not include the lunch period.
- Blood donation made outside scheduled work hours is not eligible for blood donation leave or compensatory time for the donation.
- Agencies are responsible for notifying their employees of the blood donation policy.
- All employees statewide are permitted to donate blood at any licensed blood center certified by the Food and Drug Administration.
- All employees are required to obtain prior supervisory approval for blood leave.
- All employees are required to submit verification to their supervisor of blood donation or deferral.
- Employees who donate shall receive four (4) hours leave time with pay for the purpose of donating and recovering from the donation. Leave time must be taken at the time of donation unless circumstances, as specified by the supervisor, require the donor to return to work. In this case, the unused portion of leave time will be credited as compensatory time.
- Employees deferred from donating shall not be charged for the time used in attempting to donate, but will not receive the four (4) hours leave time as those who donate.

Leave

-Compensatory Leave Time & Overtime Pay-

If your job is determined to be non-exempt according to the Fair Labor Standards Act guidelines and you are paid on a salaried basis, you will be given compensatory leave time for any hours you work beyond your usual hours of duty. If you are paid by the hour (and are a 37.5 hour week employee), you will be paid for the hours worked up to and including 37.5 hours in the week. You will receive compensatory time, on an hour-for-hour basis for hours between 37.5 and 40 in a work week. For hours worked beyond 40 in a workweek, you will be paid time and one-half your regular rate of pay, unless you elect to receive compensatory leave at one and one-half hour for each hour worked over 40. If you elect to receive compensatory leave at time and one-half, this election must remain in effect for a minimum of three months.

If your job is determined to meet the criteria as executive, administrative, or professional, you will be given compensatory leave time for all hours worked in excess of your regular work schedule. This accrual will be on an hour for hour basis. Employees in this category are considered "exempt" employees – exempt from the overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

When you use your compensatory leave time during the same week you earn it, it does not count as "hours worked" for figuring overtime compensation. As with annual leave, you must request the use of your compensatory leave in advance.

The maximum amount of compensatory time that can be accumulated by an employee in a policy making position is 240 hours. Employees in non-policy making positions can accumulate up to 239.99 hours. Once 240 hours is reached, employees in non-policy making positions will be paid for a block of 50 hours and the balance reduced accordingly. Employees who have accumulated over 150 hours may request a block 50 payment; however, the agency is not required to pay until 240 hours is reached for a non-policy making position. If you transfer to another agency, you take your compensatory time with you to your new job-just as you do with accumulated sick leave and annual leave.

Leave

-Court -

All employees of Kentucky state government receive paid leave time whenever they must serve as jurors or comply with a court or administrative subpoena. Court leave is not granted though if you or a member of your family is a party involved in a court action as a private matter. If you or a member of your family is a party to the case, you must use annual or compensatory leave and request to do so in advance.

It is important to remember that court leave is only for time that crosses your scheduled work hours. The time you must spend traveling to court is also included in paid court leave. However, if you are dismissed from jury duty or from serving as a witness, you must return directly to your job.

Please show a copy of any court summons to your supervisor before taking court leave, otherwise your absences may not be properly authorized.

Leave

-Family and Medical (FMLA)-

A summary of an employee's rights and responsibilities under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) may be access at the following link: <http://www.dol.gov/whd/regs/compliance/posters/fmlaen.pdf>. In general, the FMLA provides up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave for eligible employees for certain family and medical reasons. The Personnel Cabinet leave regulations provide additional benefits to certain state employees as well. The information below reflects the combined federal and additional protections for all employees who are covered by the administrative regulation 101 KAR 2:102 and 101 KAR 3:015.

EMPLOYEE ELIGIBILITY - To be eligible for family and medical leave, an employee must have:

1. Completed at least twelve (12) months of state service; and
2. Worked or been on paid leave for at least 1,250 hours in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the first day of family and medical leave. See the FMLA provisions in 101 KAR 2:102 Section 3 and 101 KAR 3:015 Section 3.

LEAVE ENTITLEMENT - An eligible employee must be granted at least twelve (12) weeks of unpaid family and medical leave during the calendar year for one or more of the following reasons:

- For the birth of a son or daughter, and to care for the newborn child;
- For placement with the employee of a son or daughter for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter, parent, or someone of similarly close relationship with a serious health condition;
- Because of a serious health condition that makes an employee unable to perform the functions of the employee's job;
- Because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse, son, daughter, parent, or someone of similarly close relationship is a covered military member on active duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty) in support of a contingency operation;
- To care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness if the employee is the spouse, son, daughter, next of kin, or someone of similarly close relationship to the service member.

NOTE: An eligible employee is entitled to up to 26 workweeks of leave to care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness during a single twelve (12) month period.

In general, an employee shall not be placed on family and medical leave until the employee has exhausted all accumulated paid leave such as sick, annual, or compensatory leave. However, upon written request, the employee may reserve up to ten (10) days of accumulated sick leave and be placed on family and medical leave. An employee may not elect to reserve annual or compensatory leave.

Alternatively, the employee may elect to utilize family and medical leave concurrently with other accumulated paid leave. An eligible employee is not entitled to the protections of the federal FMLA until the employee elects to utilize family and medical leave. In other words, an employee utilizing accumulated paid leave must elect to use family and medical leave concurrently with paid leave in order to be entitled to the protections contained in the federal FMLA while on paid leave. If an eligible employee does not elect to use family and medical leave concurrently with paid leave, the employee must comply with the applicable paid leave regulations contained in 101 KAR 2:102 and 101 KAR 3:015.

LEAVE TO CARE FOR A SPOUSE, SON, DAUGHTER, PARENT, OR SOMEONE OF SIMILARLY CLOSE RELATIONSHIP

- A spouse is a husband or wife as defined or recognized under State law for purposes of marriage in the State where the employee resides, including common law marriage in the States where it is recognized.
- A parent is a biological, adoptive, step or foster father or mother, or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the employee when the employee was a son or daughter as defined below. The term does not include parents "in law."

- A son or daughter means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis, who is either under age 18, or age 18 or older and incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability at the time that family and medical leave is to commence.
- Someone of similarly close relationship means an individual 1) who has resided with the employee for at least thirty days at the time that family and medical leave is to commence, or 2) for whom the employee is legally responsible.

LEAVE FOR THE BIRTH OR PLACEMENT OF A CHILD-

- In the case of an eligible husband and wife who are employed by the Executive Branch, both are entitled to twelve (12) weeks of leave due to the birth or placement of a child (i.e., bonding time).
- There may be some instances where an employee may qualify for family and medical leave prior to the birth of a child. For example, an expectant mother may take family and medical leave for prenatal care or if her condition makes her unable to work (such as in the case of severe morning sickness or if placed on bed rest by a physician). The mother is entitled to family and medical leave for incapacity due to pregnancy even though she does not receive treatment from a health care provider during the absence, and even if the absence does not last more than three (3) consecutive calendar days (the typical requirements for FMLA).
- In the case of an adoption or foster care, an employee is eligible to receive family and medical leave before the placement or adoption in some instances. For example, the employee may be required to attend counseling sessions, appear in court, consult with his or her attorney or the doctor(s) representing the birth parent, submit to a physical examination, or travel to another country to complete an adoption.
- An employee ordinarily must provide advance notice of his or her intent to use leave due to the birth or placement of a child through adoption or foster care.
- In general, upon the conclusion of the twelfth week of leave, if an employee has not exhausted his or her accrued leave and unpaid family and medical leave, an employer may require an employee to provide medical certification of the need for any additional leave time.

ADVANCE NOTICE AND MEDICAL CERTIFICATION - The employee may be required to provide advance leave notice and medical certification or other supporting documentation. Request for leave may be denied if requirements are not met.

- The employee ordinarily must provide advance notice when the need for leave is foreseeable.
- An employer may require medical certification to support a request for family and medical leave because of a serious health condition, and may require second or third opinions (at the employer's expense) and a fitness for duty report to return to work.

INTERMITTENT FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE - Family and medical leave may be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule under certain circumstances. Intermittent leave is family and medical leave taken in blocks of time due to a single qualifying reason. A reduced leave schedule is a leave schedule that reduces an employee's usual number of working hours per workweek, or hours per workday.

- Intermittent leave must be granted for the following qualifying conditions when medically necessary:
 - An employee's own serious health condition;
 - To care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter, parent, or someone of similarly close relationship with a serious health condition;
 - To care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness if the employee is the spouse, son, daughter, next of kin, or someone of similarly close relationship to the service member; and
 - Because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse, son, daughter, parent, or someone of similarly close relationship is a covered military member on active duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty) in support of a contingency operation.

JOB BENEFITS AND PROTECTION-

- While an employee is on unpaid family and medical leave, the state contribution for health and life insurance shall be maintained by the employer. If applicable, arrangements will need to be made for employees to pay their share of health and life insurance premiums while on unpaid family and medical leave.

- On return from family and medical leave, an employee is entitled to be returned to the same position the employee held when leave commenced, or to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment. .
- An employee shall be free from interference with, restraint, or the denial of any rights provided by the federal FMLA.
- An employee may not be discharged or discriminated against for opposing or complaining about any unlawful practice under the federal FMLA.

SUMMARY OF LEAVE ENHANCEMENTS-

- The federal FMLA provides that an employee must have worked at least 1,250 hours in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the first day of family and medical leave in order to be eligible for family and medical leave. However, the Personnel Cabinet leave regulations allow time worked and time spent on paid leave to count towards the 1,250 hour eligibility requirement.
- The federal FMLA allows an employer to require an employee to run his or her family and medical leave entitlement concurrently with accrued paid leave. However, the Personnel Cabinet leave regulations allow employees to choose whether family and medical leave will run concurrently or consecutively with accrued paid leave.
- The federal FMLA allows leave to care for only a spouse, son, daughter, or parent with a serious health condition. However, state government allows employees covered by the Personnel Cabinet leave regulations to take family and medical leave to care for other immediate family members as well, as defined above.
- The federal FMLA entitles a husband and wife employed by the same employer to only a combined twelve weeks of family and medical leave for bonding time following the birth or placement of a child. However, state government agencies covered by the Personnel Cabinet leave regulations must allow each spouse twelve weeks of family and medical leave for bonding time under the above-specified situation.

All covered state agencies shall comply with the federal FMLA statutes and regulations, as well as the family and medical leave provisions contained in 101 KAR 2:102 Section 3 and 101 KAR 3:015 Section 3.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered servicemember during a single 12-month period. A covered servicemember is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the servicemember is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, for 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave. Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee's leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers

FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to:

- Interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA;
- Discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.

FMLA section 109 (29 U.S.C. § 2619) requires FMLA covered employers to post the text of this notice. Regulations 29 C.F.R. § 825.300(a) may require additional disclosures.

Leave

-Military -

State employees who are active members of the United States Army Reserve, the United States Naval Reserve, the United States Air Force Reserve, the United States Marine Corps Reserve, the United States Coast Guard Reserve, the United States Public Health Service Reserve, or the Kentucky National Guard, are credited with twenty-one (21) working days of military leave for the purpose of fulfilling state and/or federal active duty orders, per federal fiscal year (October 1 – September 30), provided your orders require your absence from your state job.

Official leave must be requested in order to avoid being dismissed for abandonment of your job. A copy of your orders should be provided to your Appointing Authority to initiate this request.

Generally, once relieved or discharged from military duty under conditions other than dishonorable military duty, you have a period of *ninety (90) days to notify your agency of your intent to return to your employment position by either reporting to work or applying for reemployment. You have the right to be restored to your former position or a position of like seniority, status and pay.

*If hospitalized or receiving continuing treatment after release, you have a period of one (1) year to apply for reemployment. Notably, you must be relieved in order to be entitled to exercise these restoration rights. Please see KRS 61.373 for complete information with respect to military restoration rights.

You are entitled to any pay raises that would have been granted, as well as seniority that would have accrued, and your increment date does not change. You will be credited with the appropriate months of service upon presentation of a DD-214 to your agency Human Resource Administrator. Please note that while you are entitled to months of service for the purpose of leave accrual, you do not accrue annual or sick leave while on military leave without pay.

If you are wounded or disabled and unable to perform your job upon return, the state must offer a position similar in status and pay to the previous job for which you are qualified and able to perform.

Upon returning from military duty you (whether merit or non-merit) may not be terminated except for cause for a period of one (1) year after restoration to a position following military duty. However, if your position was abolished as a result of a lay-off, or your name was included in a lay-off plan, you would not be able to reclaim your job immediately. You would retain reemployment rights as if you had not left your job (i.e., placement on the re-employment lists with all seniority rights intact).

In the case that you do not agree that you have been afforded your restoration rights under state law, you may file an appeal with the Personnel Board. Other remedies may also exist, pursuant to the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). If you have questions about your return position or employment status, you should contact your agency HR Administrator.

In a time of peace, you retain restoration rights for a period of six (6) years. However, in a time of war or national state emergency, you retain these rights for the duration of the time of war or national emergency plus six (6) months.

NOTE: On September 9, 2011, President Barack Obama gave notice of a continuation of the Notice of Continuation of the National Emergency with Respect to Certain Terrorist Attacks. This notice continues the national emergency that was declared as a result of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001 for an additional year. So long as this state of national emergency exists, KRS 61.373 shall be applied accordingly.

- a) An employee, except a part-time employee, shall accumulate sick leave with pay at the rate of one (1) working day per month.
- b) An employee shall have worked or been on paid leave, other than educational leave, for 100 or more regular hours in a month to accrue sick leave.
- c) An employee shall be credited with additional sick leave upon the first day of the month following the month in which the sick leave is earned.
- d) A full-time employee who completes 120 months of total service with the state shall be credited with ten (10) additional days of sick leave upon the first day of the month following the completion of 120 months of service.
- e) A full-time employee who completes 240 months of total service with the state shall be credited with another ten (10) additional days of sick leave upon the first day of the month following the completion of 240 months of service.
- f) In computing months of total service for the purpose of crediting sick leave, only the months for which an employee earned sick leave may be counted.
- g) The total service shall be verified before the leave is credited to the employee's record.
- h) A former employee who has been rehired, except as provided in paragraph (i) of this subsection, shall receive credit for prior service, unless the employee had been dismissed as a result of misconduct or a violation of KRS 18A.140, 18A.145, or 18A.990.
- i) A former employee who is appointed, reinstated or reemployed, other than a former employee receiving benefits under a state retirement system, shall be credited with the unused sick leave balance credited to him upon separation.
- j) Sick leave may be accumulated with no maximum.

Rules on Sick Leave Use:

As with annual leave, you are required to get advance leave approval for such non-emergency sick leave as doctor's appointments. If your need to use sick leave prevents advance notice, you are expected to call your supervisor or his or her designee as soon as possible. Remember, the same penalties that apply to unauthorized annual leave also apply to unauthorized sick leave when the absence is not a medical emergency. When you cannot give adequate notice, a timely telephone report to your supervisor may prevent your absence from being considered unauthorized.

At the termination of sick leave with pay, your agency will return you to your former position.

At the time of your retirement, you will receive service time credit for unused sick leave in accordance with the conversion chart maintained by the Kentucky Retirement Systems. Actual credit is determined by the Retirement Systems per their regulation.

Sick leave with pay may be used when you have a medical, dental, or optical appointment. You may also use earned sick leave if you:

- are sick or injured;
- are pregnant;
- are caring for a sick or injured member of your immediate family for a reasonable period of time;
- would jeopardize the health of yourself or others at work;
- have lost by death a parent, child, brother, sister, their spouse, or any other person as specified in the regulations. (three days limit).

Your agency may limit the amount of time granted for the above conditions and may require a doctor's certificate to document your condition.

Sick leave may be used in 15-minute units.

A former employee who is appointed, reinstated, or reemployed, other than a former employee receiving benefits under a state retirement system, shall be credited with the unused sick leave balance credited to him upon separation.

Why Save Your Sick Leave?

If you ever get sick or injured and you have to be absent from work for a long time, hopefully you will have enough sick leave and other leave to cover your absence. If you don't have enough leave time, chances are you will go "Off the Payroll", and be in a leave-of-absence-without-pay status. Below are some of the consequences of going "Off the Payroll" for a lengthy period of illness:

1. You won't be paid your salary.
2. You won't be paid for any Holidays that fall during your period of leave without pay.
3. You won't earn vacation and sick leave during this period.
4. You may have to work extra months to become a "Career Employee" or to qualify for retirement. Remember that you have to work, or be on paid leave (other than educational leave with pay), for 100 or more hours per month to gain service credit for the month.
5. *You must pay for your dependents' and your health insurance premiums, which would normally be deducted from your pay.
6. *You must pay for your Group Life Insurance premiums, which would normally be deducted from your pay.
7. *You will have to make your own payment arrangements for any normally payroll-deducted loans, optional insurance, etc.

Sick Leave With Pay:

Each state employee who works, or is on paid leave (other than educational leave with pay), for 100 or more hours per month accumulates sick leave with pay at the rate of one day per month. There is no limit to the number of sick days you may accumulate.

Sick Leave Without Pay:

If you are sick or injured, you may take sick leave without pay for up to one year. To do so, you must complete the appropriate leave request form in your agency and furnish a medical certificate signed by a doctor certifying your specific condition.

If you take sick leave without pay, you may request to retain 10 days of your earned sick leave with pay in your sick leave balance for later use after you return to work. Whether or not you choose to use all of your sick leave with pay before taking leave without pay is up to you. When you are ready to return to work from sick leave without pay and have notified your agency of your ability to perform your job duties and have provided the appropriate medical documentation, your agency must return you to a position for which you are qualified and which resembles your former position as closely as circumstances permit. If you do not notify your agency of your readiness to work, your agency will notify you ten days before your sick leave without pay runs out. An employee who is unable to return to work at the end of one (1) year of sick leave without pay, after being requested to return to work at least (10) days prior to the expiration of such sick leave, shall be considered resigned by the appointing authority only if the appointing authority has been unable to place the employee in a vacant, budgeted position, with the same agency, for which the employee qualifies. The employee shall be given priority consideration for such vacant position, if he is capable of performing its essential functions with or without reasonable accommodation.

Sick Leave Sharing Program:

In the event of a prolonged or catastrophic illness or injury, or an extended absence due to illness of a family member, eligible employees who accrue sick leave and who have exhausted their leave balances may have sick leave donated to them by other eligible state employees. Information on this program and the forms needed to receive or donate leave may be obtained from your Human Resource Administrator.

Sick Leave Abuse:

Your earned sick leave with pay is intended as a benefit for you to use at those times when you have a bona fide need for it. As your employer, the state has defined the terms for using sick leave very broadly, recognizing that there are many circumstances other than your own unexpected illness when you might justifiably claim sick leave. Sick leave cannot, however, be used for unnecessary occasions when it would be convenient for you to be absent. For those times, you must apply for annual or compensatory leave. The employee who abuses sick leave causes either a work slow-down or places an unfair strain upon fellow workers who must do the work in his or her absences. In consideration for your fellow workers, your agency, and the people state government serves, spend your sick leave time wisely. Remember that a large amount of accumulated sick leave with pay is your cheapest form of disability insurance.

Sick Leave Longevity Award:

Employees whose career work for the state reaches 120 months receive a bonus of 10 additional sick leave days in consideration for their service. After completion of 240 months, employees will receive 10 additional days of sick leave.

Leave

-Special Leave of Absence/Educational -

Special leave of absence may be granted, with or without pay, for up to 24 months, with the approval of your appointing authority and the Secretary of Personnel.

If granted, leave shall be granted either with pay (if the employee contractually agrees to a service commitment) or without pay.

You will not accumulate annual leave or sick leave while on special leave with pay. If your leave is without pay, you must make arrangements through the payroll officer to continue your health and life insurance. You must pay the total premiums.

Leave

-Voting -

In order to be eligible for voting leave, an employee must (1) be registered to vote in the county holding the election, (2) be scheduled to work on Election Day during the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. local time, and (3) notify their immediate supervisor prior to receiving voting leave. Employees who are authorized to work in lieu of taking voting leave shall receive four hours of compensatory leave.

Voting leave must be requested and approved in advance. The employee must be eligible to vote in the county holding the election and must actually vote in order to receive voting leave. Agencies develop work schedules in advance of an election that permit employees to share the workload on Election Day while still taking leave time to go to the polls. An employee may receive up to four hours of voting leave for the purposes of voting on Election Day or the same amount of time to cast an absentee ballot, prior to Election Day. (Employees electing to vote via absentee ballot are eligible for voting leave on the day the absentee vote is cast at their respective County Clerk's office – this includes absentee votes cast for out-of-state elections if the employee otherwise qualifies pursuant to the applicable state law.

Additional information:

General Election Days – Allows for up to 4 Hours of Voting Leave

Presidential Election Days – State Offices will be closed per KRS 18A.190

Leave

-Weather, Inclement Policy-

The normal working hours for employees in State Government Offices are 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., prevailing local time, Mondays through Fridays. Employees who work in 24-hour facilities such as parks, hospitals, prisons or residential facilities and employees who work in law enforcement, disaster and emergency services and on highway crews are the standard exception to the normal working hours policy. Appointing Authorities are authorized to approve flexible schedules when necessary to promote efficiency or provide reasonable accommodation.

In accordance with 101 KAR 2:102 section II, it is the policy of State Government that state offices will remain open and that the working hours of state employees will not be altered due to adverse weather conditions. When weather conditions prevent an employee from reporting to work at the normal time, or when an employee decides not to report for work or to leave work early due to weather conditions, the following apply:

1. If operational needs allow, supervisors are required to make every reasonable effort to arrange schedules to allow employees to make up time not worked. Employees are not allowed to make up the work if it would result in the employee working over 40 hours in a workweek. The employee has four (4) months from the occurrence of the absence to make up the time lost. If it is not made up within 4 months, annual or compensatory leave shall be used to cover the absence. If, at that time, the employee has no annual or compensatory leave available, then the employee shall have his/her time charged to leave without pay. If the employee transfers to another agency or is no longer employed by state government before the leave is made up, the leave shall be charged to annual or compensatory time or deducted from the employee's final paycheck; or
2. Employees may use accumulated annual or compensatory leave time for the late arrival, early departure or missed work day; or
3. If annual and compensatory leave have been exhausted, the employee may take leave without pay for the late arrival, early departure or missed workday.

Any employee who is on leave that was arranged prior to the inclement weather shall use the leave as originally requested.

The Merit System

By far, the greatest number of state employees in the Executive Branch work in the classified service, also frequently referred to as the "merit system." Positions not under the merit system generally include the staff of the governor and lieutenant governor, policy-making managers, and interim employees (see KRS 18A.115).

The merit system emphasizes making personnel decisions (hiring, promoting, assigning work, and other matters) based on an individual's qualifications and performance. The merit system also protects state employee against arbitrary actions and discriminatory practices. For example, as discussed below, any disciplinary actions brought against a merit employee with status must provide specific written notice of the reasons for the action and provide a right of appeal to a neutral decision-maker, such as the Personnel Board.

Merit system employees serve a probationary period when they begin working for the state. Usually, the probationary period lasts six months, but may be as long as twelve months depending on the classification. When the probationary period is over, employees gain merit system "status," which gives employees certain additional rights and privileges.

The Personnel Cabinet and the Personnel Board administer and enforce the merit system. The merit system is codified in Chapter 18A of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, and in various administrative regulations. Additionally, KRS Chapter 16 and Title 502 of the Kentucky Administrative Regulations govern sworn officers in the Kentucky State Police. Certified and equivalent employees of the former Workforce Development Cabinet, now part of the Education Cabinet, are governed by KRS Chapter 151B and 780 KAR Chapter 3.

Payroll Deduction Program

The Personnel Cabinet maintains a statewide payroll system for all employees of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of government. For a number of years the Cabinet has provided the service of payroll deduction as a convenience for its employees; allowing optional insurance companies (such as dental, vision, and life) and employee organizations to collect payments/dues through payroll deduction in exchange for a nominal fee.

A listing of these companies and organizations that are approved to participate in this program are available on the Personnel Cabinet's website at <https://personnel.ky.gov/pages/optional.aspx>. Employees are welcome to contact agents directly to obtain information on plans and products offered.

NOTICE: The Personnel Cabinet and Commonwealth of Kentucky are not parties to any agreement between the individual employee and the company/organization and will not serve any function other than as a conduit for the payment of premiums/dues.

In addition, we DO NOT endorse or sponsor ANY voluntary optional insurance company/product or employee organization.

Political Activities

As your employer, state government encourages you to register and vote. Retirement

Your retirement plan as an employee of Kentucky state government is designed to give you long-term security in the years after your state service is completed. It also contains valuable benefits for your named beneficiary.

Most state employees belong to the Kentucky Employees Retirement System. Some employees of the Department of Education and the former Workforce Development Cabinet now part of the Education Cabinet are enrolled in the Kentucky Teachers' Retirement System. After you have identified which one pertains to you, you may request a free booklet detailing your retirement program for your retirement system. If you serve under both systems during your career, you may combine credits when you retire.

If you are planning on Retiring:

1. You need to contact the Kentucky Retirement Systems (KRS) to determine your options for retirement. Please refer to <https://kyret.ky.gov/Pages/contact.aspx> for contact information for KRS. Once you make a decision regarding your retirement, please contact your Human Resource Administrator. Refer to the Agency HR Staff/Consultant Listing which is available on the Personnel Cabinet's website at <https://hr.personnel.ky.gov/pages/agencies.aspx>.
2. The Kentucky Public Employees Deferred Compensation Authority: To defer your payment(s) for accumulated leave (compensatory and annual) time to Kentucky Deferred Compensation (KDC) be sure to contact them 60 days in advance of your planned retirement date.
 - You must complete and sign a Participation Agreement far enough in advance for Kentucky Deferred Compensation to notify your payroll department prior to the issuance of the check(s) for your accumulated leave. Merely notifying KDC of your intention will not allow you to defer any payment for accumulated leave.
 - To transfer dollars from your KDC account to KRS, KTRS, Legislative or Judicial Form Retirement in order to purchase service credit, you will need to submit the Direct Transfer/Rollover form to KDC.
 - Note: Any purchase of service credit begins with your retirement system. You will need to make an appointment with them and obtain the necessary forms and cost calculation information before Kentucky Deferred Compensation can assist you.

For further information on deferring accumulated leave or using your Kentucky Deferred Compensation account to purchase service credit, please call their Customer Service Center; toll free, at 800-542-2667, or in Frankfort at 573-7925.

3. Often there's much that goes into planning for retirement from a fiscal standpoint. Very few employees spend time planning for the psychological/emotional issues which occurs with retirement. Planning for a healthy transition is critical with all major life changes; even good change can be stressful. The Kentucky Employee Assistance Program (KEAP) offers an educational tool that highlights important issues to consider so you can make the healthiest transition into retirement. Prospective retirees may contact KEAP at 1-800-445-5327 or 502-564-5788 for more information or to speak with a counselor one-on-one.
4. The Kentucky Employees' Health Plan (KEHP):
As you retire (under 65 and not eligible for Medicare) keep in mind the following information pertaining to your health insurance benefits:
 - Your health insurance benefits should transition without a break in coverage. To ensure a smooth transition however, you must work with your retirement system to complete a Health Insurance Application. The retirement system will notify KEHP of your retirement coverage.

For more information, please contact your retirement system.

Returning Retirees:

1. If you retire and determine you still have a desire to continue working, state employment may be an option for you. You will need to contact the Kentucky Retirement Systems to determine whether your employment with state government will affect your retirement benefits. If you decide to apply to a position with state government, you will need to apply to vacant positions posted on the Personnel Cabinet's website through the Career Opportunities System (COS). You can apply for positions of interest anytime 24 hours a day, seven days a week during the ten (10) day posting through COS.
2. Remember, if you are a returning retiree, you are no longer an Internal Mobility Candidate nor do you have Reinstatement privileges.

For more information pertaining to COS access the Personnel Cabinet's website at <https://careers.ky.gov/Pages/default.aspx>.

Reversion, Re-employment, and Reinstatement

Reversion Rights

Reversion rights include the right to return to the last merit position in which you attained status in certain instances. KRS 18A.005(35). In general, there are three situations in which an employee has the right to “revert” to a formerly held merit position.

1. Promotion from a merit position with status to another position in the classified service: Upon the failure to complete a promotional probationary period, an employee shall revert to his or her former merit position. KRS 18A.005(35).
2. Detail to special duty from a merit position with status: Upon completion of an employee’s detail to special duty, the employee shall revert to his or her former merit position. 101 KAR 2:076(2).
3. Separation of a career employee from a non-merit position, if the employee had previously attained merit status: If a “career employee” has previously attained status in a position in the classified service, he or she shall revert to a position in that class in the separating agency, if vacant. KRS 18A.130. A career employee is an employee who has accrued sixteen (16) years of full-time 18A state service or its part-time equivalent, merit or non-merit. For a complete definition of career employee, see KRS 18A.005(4). For more information on the reversion rights of career employees, see KRS 18A.115.

Reemployment Rights

Reemployment rights include the right to be considered for any open 18A merit position for which you qualify with the distinction of a “reemployment candidate.” No vacancy may be filled from a competitive register until all reemployment candidates on that register have been reemployed, interviewed, or properly considered. Additionally, reemployment candidates who are considered for a position and not reemployed receive notification of the decision, and the reemployment candidate may appeal this decision to the Personnel Board. KRS 18A.005(31), KRS 18A.113;and KRS 18A.135.

In general, there are only two types of employees who have reemployment rights.

1. Merit employees laid off from a position in which they attained status (KRS 18A.113);
2. Career employees separated from a non-merit position other than for cause (KRS 18A.135).

Reinstatement Privileges

Reinstatement privileges allow you to be placed in a position within your former classification, or in a position of like status and pay, up to the highest pay grade in which you achieved merit status. Reinstatement is a privilege, not a right. Therefore, reinstatement occurs only at the option of the appointing authority of the appointing agency. KRS 18A.005(34). You acquire reinstatement privileges when you resign in good standing from a merit position in which you attained status. KRS 18A.005(34). You must meet the current minimum requirements for the job classification to which you wish to be reinstated.

For more information with respect to reversion and reemployment rights, please visit our website at <https://careers.ky.gov/Pages/Reversion.aspx>. For more information on reinstatement privileges, please visit <https://careers.ky.gov/Pages/reinstatement.aspx>.

Ridesharing (Office of Transportation Delivery)

If you are interested in joining a car or van pool, or commuting by bus to work, contact the Transportation Cabinet, Office of Transportation Delivery at (502) 564-7433 for referrals to individuals and agencies in your community. This office maintains a file of persons commuting to Frankfort.

Safety- Kentucky Safety Program

Employees of every organization are the key to an effective safety program (see 101 KAR 2:150). As a state employee, you are responsible for taking safety precautions to protect yourself and others from unnecessary safety and health hazards. This responsibility includes knowledge of and compliance with the Kentucky Safety Program Rules, and making suggestions for improved safety conditions or work practices to your supervisor. Fulfillment of these responsibilities will result in a safer work environment for all government employees.

Information on the Kentucky Safety Program as well as the Commonwealth of Kentucky's Safety and Health Manual can be found on the Personnel Cabinet's website at <http://personnel.ky.gov/programs/safetyprogram/default.htm>. You can also contact the State Safety Program at (502) 564-7824.

Service Certificates/Career Status:

KRS Chapter 18A employees will receive service certificates in honor of the dedicated completion of five (5), ten (10), twenty (20), thirty (30) and forty (40) years of service from the Personnel Cabinet. While an employee is currently a Chapter 18A employee at the time months of service are calculated, prior service may not have been completely in 18A positions. For example, other non-Chapter 18A positions include positions at LRC and AOC. These service certificates only serve to recognize an employee's dedicated service to the Commonwealth service and do not provide any legal status or entitlement within the merit system.

Employees are entitled to certain rights if/when separated from Chapter 18A positions once they have obtained career status. However, these rights do not apply in all instances of separation, such as retirement. (See the Reversion, Reemployment, and Reinstatement section for a detailed explanation of these rights.) Career status is achieved upon the completion of sixteen (16) years of service in full-time, permanent positions within KRS Chapter 18A classified service, unclassified service, or combination of both classified and unclassified service, and the part-time equivalent. The determination of career status is based upon the specific positions in which an employee served and therefore must be approved by the Personnel Cabinet to verify qualified service. If you wish to seek determination of your status, your agency must submit a request on your behalf to the Personnel Cabinet.

State Materials and Equipment, Use of

When state materials, equipment and resources are put to personal use, they must be replaced sooner, causing a drain on agency funds. State law, KRS 11A.005, 11A.020 and 11A.040, prohibits a public servant from using his or her public office to obtain a private benefit and from furthering his own economic interests through state employment. Therefore, when state employees use copy machines, telephones, stationery, computers, e-mail, bandwidth and other state resources as if they were their own personal property, they deprive the public of the use for which such resources were intended and violate the law. Since employees, too, are taxpayers, they also should be concerned about high government cost that could be avoided by careful use of state materials and equipment purchases with tax dollars. Although failure to realize individual responsibility for economical use of state property may seem a minor flaw in an otherwise excellent employee, the direct dollar loss for property and material abuse is large. The conscientious employee will carefully use state materials and equipment purchased with tax dollars and take care to avoid the personal use of state resources.

Travel Regulations: Employees

If you must travel on state business, your expenses will be reimbursed according to provisions of 200 KAR 2:006. These administrative regulations specify in detail what types of transportation are acceptable under what conditions; what costs for accommodations and meals are allowable; what receipts you must obtain to document your expenses; what conditions determine whether or not you may be reimbursed for expenses; and what forms you must use in order to have your expenses reimbursed. Do not assume that your agency will reimburse all travel costs. You may contact a person in your agency authorized to make such judgments, usually in your agency's fiscal office, or review the information available at <http://finance.ky.gov/services/statewideacct/Pages/travel.aspx>. You may find that your agency has agency-specific requirements to authorize travel.

Generally you should know that state employees are required to use the most efficient means of travel available and should use a state vehicle when available and practical rather than a personal vehicle. Employees should try to travel together rather than drive separate vehicles to the same place. Most out-of-state travel requires the prior authorization of the Office of the Controller in the Finance and Administration Cabinet via an electronic document in the Commonwealth's eMARS financial system.

Travel money, from state funds is not available in advance. However, agencies may book airfare in advance for approved travel and may pay for approved conference registrations in advance. If you are a member of the Commonwealth Credit Union or the Kentucky Employees Credit Union (see entry under Employee Benefits section of this handbook), you may qualify for a low-interest short-term travel loan. To obtain a travel loan, take a copy of your most recent P-1 (personnel action form) and a copy of your authorization to travel on state business to the credit union. You should contact your agency's human resource administrator if you have further questions.

The State Finance and Administration Cabinet has established a website to determine the most efficient means of state travel by automobile. The site is as follows: <http://finance.ky.gov/services/fleet/Pages/milagecalculator.aspx> The Commonwealth also has established contracts with rental car companies especially for travel initiated outside of Frankfort. A rental car on contract may be less expensive than using a personal vehicle. Individual agencies and cabinets have their own policies on use of the travel calculator website and the use of rental care contracts. You should contact your supervisor or fiscal office should you have any questions.

Violence in The Workplace

A growing concern among workers in both the public and private sector is safety from violence while at work. In response to this concern it is important that every employee be aware that violence and threats of violence are unacceptable workplace behaviors. Violence in the workplace involves more than the use of weapons. It can include shoving, harassing, and hitting as well as other acts.

The Commonwealth of Kentucky does not tolerate any actions that threaten its employees. Any such action will be dealt with immediately by management personnel and/or Security. This includes verbal and physical harassment, verbal and physical threats and any actions that may cause others to feel unsafe in our workplace. It is the responsibility of all employees and management to report threatening actions whenever they occur to management and to Security. All threatening incidents will be investigated by management and documented in personnel files. For additional information, please visit the Emergency Procedures for Employees by Building website at <http://finance.ky.gov/services/statebuilding/Pages/emergency.aspx>. To learn more about violence prevention strategies visit <https://personnel.ky.gov/Pages/Workplace-Violence-Prevention-Guide.aspx>.

If a threat of violence occurs in the workplace, from employees or from customers, the supervisor must be made aware of the threat. If an incident of violence occurs at work it is important to provide employees in that work setting with psychological care within 24-48 hours by contacting either the Kentucky Employee Assistance Program at (502) 564-5788 or the Kentucky Community Crisis Response Board 24/7 at (888) 522-7228.

Work Schedules

State employees are expected to be at work on time. A full-time employee shall be required to work 37 ½ hours per week (some employees regularly work 40 hours a week) unless specified otherwise by the Appointing Authority or the Statutes. The typical workweek runs Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. till 4:30 p.m., with time off each day for lunch. (KRS 337.355) You are also entitled to rest breaks, according to KRS 337.365.

Agency managers have discretion in deciding what work hours best meet the needs of particular work place. If you work in a state hospital or correctional facility, for example, you may work a different shift than you office counterparts. Your lunch period may be less than an hour if it is necessary for staff to rotate to provide continuous coverage. In some units, employees must all take their rest break at the same time; in others, the work demands a staggered schedule. These are agency management decisions, so long as the agency complies with applicable laws.

Another area of discretion is flextime scheduling. An agency may offer some or all its employees the opportunity to design their own work schedules. Usually, agencies operating under flextime require that their employees work certain “core” hours during each day to ensure that there is a steady flow of work during the peak hours when services are most needed.
